

X2Force Definition of Done

1. Definition of Done checklist for User Story:

- Produced code for presumed functionalities
- User Story tasks met
- Project builds without errors
- Unit tests written and passing
- Feature is tested against acceptance criteria
- Product Owner approves of new feature
- Any configuration or build changes documented
- Documentation updated

2. Definition of Done checklist for Sprint:

- Definition of Done of each single User story, included in the Sprint are met
- “To-Do” tasks are completed
- All unit tests passed
- Product backlog updated
- The performance tests passed
- All bugs fixed
- Sprint marked as ready for the production deployment by the Product Owner

3. Definition of Done checklist for Release:

- Code Complete
- All unit & functional tests are passed
- All acceptance criterias are met
- All “To-Do” tasks have been resolved
- Whole team agrees that they are done
- Check that no unintegrated work in progress has been left in any development or staging environment.
- Make sure there is no dead code or unneeded code
- All features have been tested and approved
- Documentation is up to date

Works Cited

We borrowed many of these ideas found from the following Definition of Done example:

apiumhub.com DoD example